Summer Session

In order to receive credit for attending classes during the summer session, the following must be fulfilled:

- ✓ Follow the 7 precepts of the Catholic Church, one of which is attending Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation.
- ✓ Complete the grade level book by the end of the upcoming school year.
- ✓ Be regular and punctual in attendance; and in the case of unavoidable absence, give notice to the Director of Religious Education. No Absences, tardiness or early pickup.
- ✓ I understand that my child(ren) must attend every day of the program as well as monthly sessions (parent and child(ren) in the parish related to religious education throughout the year. Signing in at these gatherings is required so we are aware of your attendance. Events TBD
- ✓ I understand that if my child(ren) is being prepared to receive a sacrament I and my child(ren) will attend all required retreats and meetings during the year.
- ✓ I also understand that any day missed will result in loss credit for the level my child(ren) has been attending. Should my child/children be unable to complete the summer session, the tuition will be applied to the traditional School of Religion session, however, availability will be limited.
- ✓ I understand that my child will attend the 8:00am parish daily Mass as part of their summer session.
